Sinopse

Everyone seems to be chasing Mona Hsia-Hwang. The opening scene has her being pursued a cornered by a cop, who molests her with his pistol. She gives into his attentions, then shoots him, establishing her credentials as a femme fatale. We then meet Mona's young cousin May, being picked up by Mona's husband's adopted son Li Wai Wai. Wai is the smouldering sullen type, whom May fancies almost immediately. Trouble is, Wai is secretly in love with Mona. Mona tends to the bodily functions of her sick and elderly husband Hwang Fei Hung. Fei Hung has a heart condition, and is under medical orders to avoid excitement. But, with a wife as luscious as Rena M, how is this possible ?! And he's a lecherous old bastard, always pitifully begging Mona for sex. It doesn't take a genius to work out that Mona can't wait for the old guy to pass away and get his money. She even has a go at convincing Fei Hung's attorney Mr Chen to reveal the terms of the old guy's will, by removing her stockings and proving that she wore no knickers. Yet another man is after Mona. Chiu is a tough cop who used to be Mona's protector, and he wants her back, though it's pretty clear he only wants the money she'd inherit.
