Sinopse

Late 1944 during WWII, the American army have raced their way through the countryside on the border of France entering Nazi Germany. Hitler, desperate to turn the tide, has deployed his secret weapon: an M-262 fighter jet. Lieutenant Frank Ross, a P-51 Mustang fighter pilot, encounters the Nazi weapon, and an intense aerial battle ensues. Frank is unsuccessful in the fight and is forced to eject from his plane, landing himself behind enemy lines. Waiting for the rescue team, Frank finds himself in the middle of a German ambush against an American Tanker Patrol. Leading the US Patrol is 2nd Lt. Robert Hayes along with his right hand men: Sergeant AJ "Red McCarron and Private Michael "Salty" Buttons, an all African American squadron serving the famed 761st Tank Battalion known as "The Black Panthers." The soldiers are faced with racial tensions and must find a way to put their differences aside and band together to win the war.
